
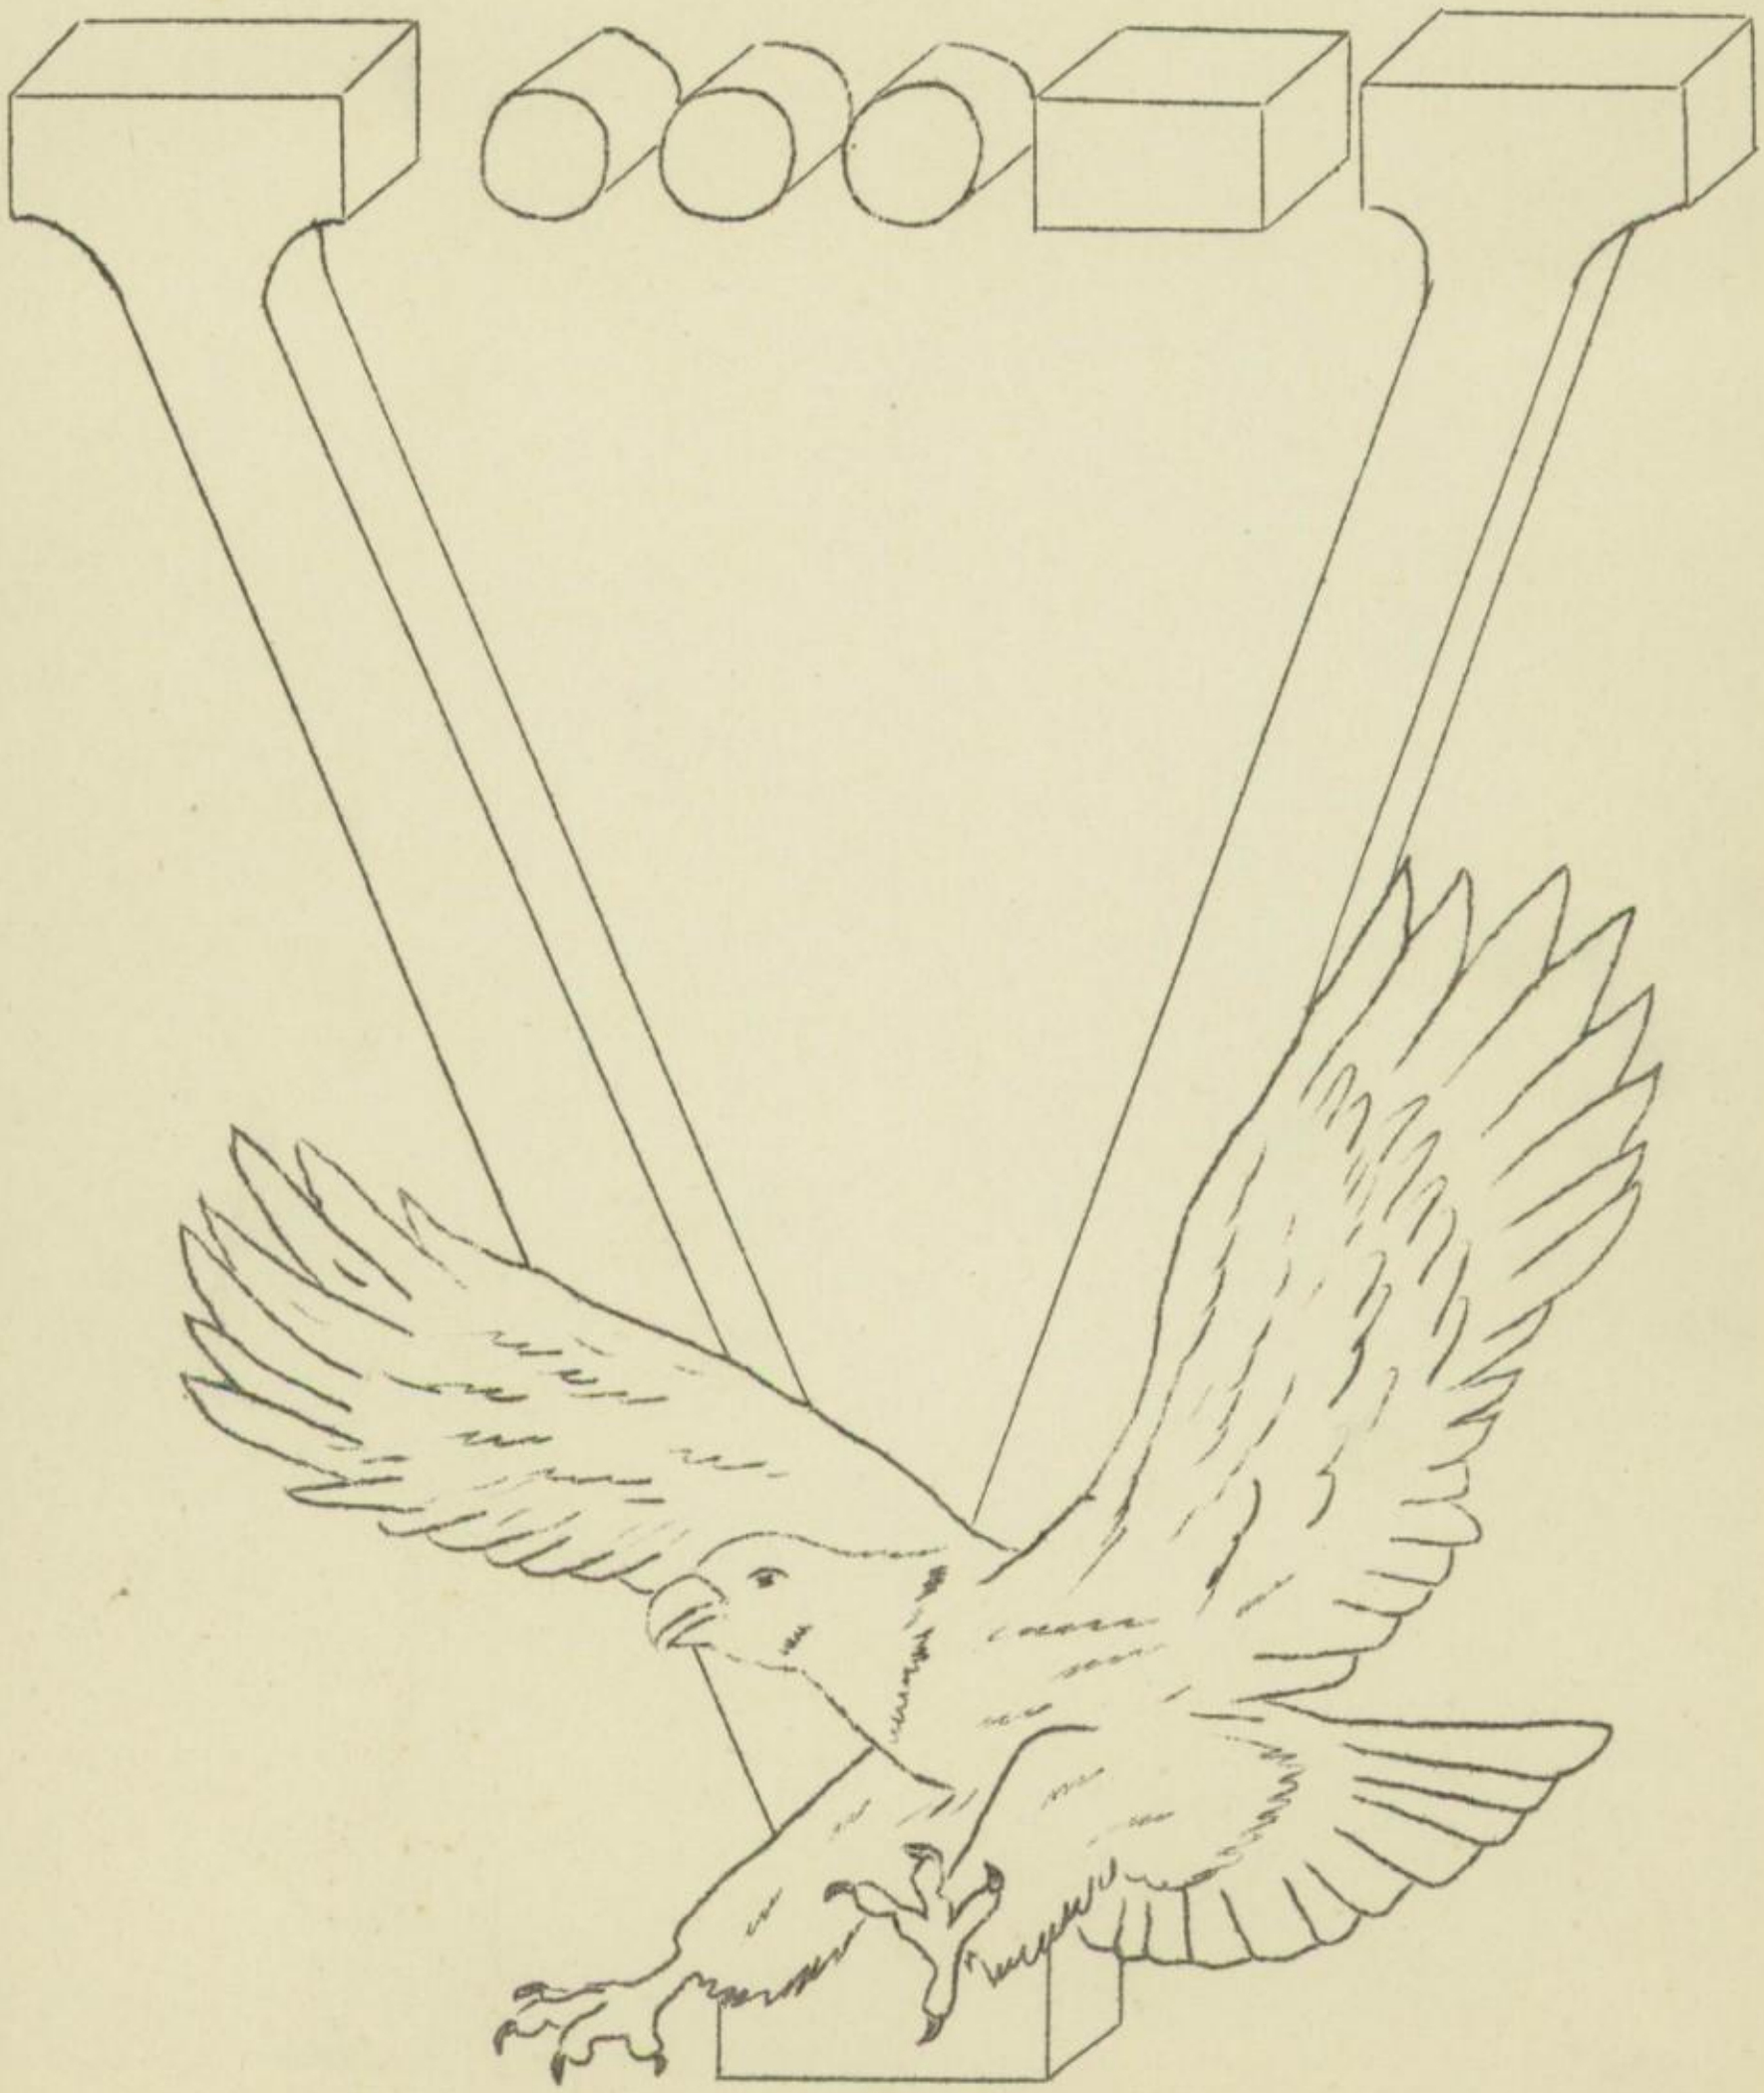
LEST WE FORGET

1943



DEDICATION

Nearly a year and a half ago the United States was drawn into one of the greatest wars the world has ever known. Consequently the men, both young and middle aged, of this country have been called to the colors. It is to the men of this community, who have gone to serve, that we, the members of the "Lest We Forget Staff" and the senior class of 1943 wish to dedicate this annual.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1943, of the High School of Cridersville, having come to the end of our long lives in a peaceful and undisturbed state of, what we have always been pleased to call, our minds, in accordance with the laws of this state, do hereby give and bequeath and devise all our worldly goods and possessions with all the appurtenances and hereditaments thereunto belonging, as seemeth wise and fitting in our judgement, without taking advice or counsel from anyone, and without being influence in the least by past favors or disfavors, past kindness or unkindness. We may say that in making these bequests, we have been said to possess in a remarkable degree, common sense.

RAY BINKLEY: My wit to Kenneth Thomas.

DON DIERINGER: My list of girls' telephone numbers to Jr. Klemon.

BETTY ELEY: My title of "teacher's pet" to Gene DuBois.

DICK GREER: His apple throwing ability to Norville Freymuth.

PEGGY HASH: Her freckles to Evelyn Schultz.

BEULAH HINKLE: My ambition as a Senior to anyone who wants it.

ROBERTA HYNE: Her black hair to Peggy Carter.

MILDRED LAING: Her red hair to Bob Rohrbacher.

HAROLD MAYER: My hiney hair-cut to Yvonne Arnold.

BUD MEFFLEY: His curly black hair to Dick Crumrine.

ANNA JEAN MOWERY: My ability to "get around" to Alberta Ramge.

ANNA LOUISE PLAPP: My tendency to "hate men" to Genaieve Briscoe.

MARJORIE ROHRBACHER: Her artistic ability to Byron Williams.

PAUL SHEELY: Some of my weight to Mary Alice Porter.

BETTY THOMAS: Her feminine ways to Marilyn Spyker.

AZUBA WOLFE: My hurraches to Bud Smith.

EARL ZIMMERMAN: My draft papers to Bill Eley.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Five minutes till closing time in the offices of Smith and Jones Co.(manfacturers of Soapy Suds, the best washday soap, etc., etc.)when my employer called me into his office and told me to catch the next plane for Cridersville to settle some of his affairs there.

Trying to control a delighted grin, I left the office and caught a plane. About five minutes later, I became aware of whispers and giggles that somehow sounded familiar. I turned around and there were Marjorie Rohrbacher and Mildred Laing. Marjorie is married, and was just returning from a vacation at Lake Placid. Mildred is a Powers model, and a very likely candidate for Miss America this year. After gossiping with them awhile, I was really surprised to learn that Earl Zimmerman was president of the airline, one of whose planes we were on at the time. He received this position by some invention of his which made air travel safer than walking.

The next morning as I left my hotel, I bumped into Betty June Eley. She's president of a local dramatic group, and a member of a famous international dramatic club. She insisted on showing me the new Cridersville, and first took me into a restaurant.

The place was really unusual--French waitresses, Hawaiian murals on the walls, and a pseudo Latin American orchestra. When I saw the proprietress everything was explained. Gay, irresponsible Beulah Hinkle! This was her latest brain wave.

Betty then took me down to the local radio station, which has become one of the best in the world, and we saw the famous news commentator, Dick Greer, give one of his world-wide broadcasts--funny, how he used to want to be a mortician. Over in the next studio Roberta(Bobbie) Hyne, the noted interior decorator, gave advice on how to decorate a ten-room pent-house. She has just recently been asked to redecorate the east-room of the White House, gossip has it.

That evening we attended the performance, which was to dedicate the new auditorium at Cridersville University. Up in the instructors' balcony we noticed Azuba Wolfe, Dean of Women here at the University.

Time for the program to begin. The orchestra was under the direction of Gordon Lee(Bud)Meffley, who has been recently voted most popular orchestra leader in the nation. His saucy, sparkling little vocalist was Anna Jean Mowery. Remember Betty Hutton? Few people do since Anna Jean got started. Guest pianist was Betty Jane Thomas, and gosh!! I'm still surprised she played through the entire performance without "swingin' it" just once.

The master of ceremonies, Professor Harold Mayer(by the way, Betty June said he had become terribly absent minded)then announced the principal speakers, two outstanding national figures, a hero and a heroine of the last World War. Remember all that ado about something back when we were still in school? They were Admiral Paul Sheely of the United States Navy, who is given credit for sinking twenty enemy subs,(whew!)and Lieutenant Margaret Alyce Hash, Army nurse, who saved many lives in the face of danger. We were all carried away by their inspirational speeches, Paul's personality, and Peggy's red hair and green eyes.

To top off the evening, we had two performers everybody has heard and heard of. That startling, silly, crazy incorrigible comedy team, Don Dieringer and Ray Pinkley. Just looking at their blissfully blank faces would send even Greta Garbo into convulsions. Who could think of a better way to end a perfect day!(??)

So I left the exclusive, big little town of Cridersville after rather haphazardly attending to what the boss sent me for(I was too carried away really, to pay much attention to wishy-washy suds)and between reports I mused on Cridersville, today and yesterday.
